LOCAL SWIMMERS WILL GO AFTER WORLD'S RECORD AT 'Y' JULY 22

Duke P. Kahanamoku, George Cunha, Clarence Lane, John Kelii and "Stubby" Kruger Will Make Attempt to Lower 400-Yard Relay Record Now Held By Illinois Athletic Club—Five Swimmers Have Made Faster Time as Individuals

A "star-chamber" session of the swimmers most interested was held in the office of the physical director of the Y. M. C. A. last night. Those present at the meeting were Duke P. Kahanamoku, George Cunha, Harold Kruger, John Kelii, Harry Decker, Clair Tait and G. E. Jackson.

As a result of the meeting it has been decided to stage an interesting novice swimming meet one week from this Saturday night with an all-star relay team featuring the meet in an attempt to lower the world's record for the 400 yards.

A few days ago Harold Dillingham offered a cup to the winning novice team in an all-novice meet. There had also been talk of the relay and the meeting last night saw the possibilities of combining the two ideas. Dillingham is cooperating with the officers of the association in making the swimming game more popular than it has ever been before in the local tank.

Four teams are the probable entries. The Bank of Hawaii will come in with Percy Nottage as captain. The Association Jorrmity is headed by Ernest Cameron, the H. A. C. organization also has a bunch of novices to be handled by Werner Smith, while the Triple A crowd will enter with David Bent managing its affairs.

Let "Em Suffer

An interesting, and perhaps exciting feature of the meet will be a Secretaries vs. Directors relay of 160 yards. From the best available dope the Directors have the edge on the Secretaries—anyway it ought to be exciting.

Although the meet is to be of the same high-class as previous meets pulled off at the association tank, it has been thought best not to charge any admission. This is because the principal prize of the evening, the cup, is already given and the association has never attempted to make any money on its meets but merely promote the sport.

After World's Record

The meet of novice swimmers will close with the great attempt to lower the world's record for the 400 yard relay. For this attempt the swimmers were chosen last night. Five men are to swim and two separate times taken, one for the four-man and one for the five-man relay. Harold Kruger will start the race, he being the fifth man. The four swimmers to make up the quartet then are to be Clarence Lane, John Kelii, George Cunha and the last 100 yards is to be spun off by Duke P. Kahanamoku, the world's greatest swimmer.

Harry Decker has been the principal factor in making it possible to bring together these five star swimmers and he, together with G. E. Jackson, have in charge the details of the meet. They are now securing ten of the best timers to be had in Honolulu.

Many Features

The program for the whole meet is not as yet entirely completed but it will include many relays. First comes the 100 yard relay, four men to the team. Then there is the under-water swim, one representative from each team. The plunge for distance has the same arrangement. Then comes team diving, each team putting in its favorite for the various dives. First of the dives is the good old "Spank the Baby," then follows the plain front dive and the best voluntary dive will come third. For the fourth dive the best "Yamo" dive is to be contested. The Yamo is one of the most popular of dives, especially among those not claiming to be experts in the game. It appears to be merely jumping into the water, but there is art to it in that the body must be straightened just at the right moment, giving a pebble-in-the-brook effect.

An obstacle relay will afford plenty of fun while an angle-on-the-bottom-of-the-pool relay will equal it in fun-producing results. Two or three more strictly relay—including the backstroke 80 yard relay, and the tandem relay will make up perhaps the most entertaining program yet produced in the tank.

CHILLINGWORTH SAYS HE WILL NOT PLAY NOW

Umpire States That He Was Let Out Because He Would Not Play With Lulus

The published report that Henry Chillingworth was going to play with one of the Oahu League teams is not true. This statement comes from Henry, who says that he will not play ball for the Oahu League with the present bunch at the head of things. Henry is peeved because someone started the report that he would play. In an interview with the well known arbiter of the diamond today, he said that he was let out as umpire because he refused to play ball with the Honolulu. Henry laughingly stated that Capt. Statton may lose his job if he does not decide to play with the Chinese team or one of the other teams.

Chilly Makes Good

Many of the fans around the city have wondered why Chillingworth was relieved by Kan Yen, Akana and Argabrite, when he had been making such a good record on the diamond. It was acknowledged that Chillingworth is far and away the best umpire in the city, and the action taken by the Oahu League has not strengthened their standing with the fans.

Walter Argabrite has refused to play ball for the Oahu League, but it was rumored around town that an effort will be made to line him up with the Honolulu. The position of umpire evidently paves the way for the change.

Officers of the Oahu League admitted that Chillingworth had been let out because he refused to play with the Honolulu. In a conversation with Walter Argabrite he said that he did not intend to play ball under the present regime, and the fans may look for a new umpire in the future according to the rumors that are floating around. Argabrite has been making a good showing on the bases, but the change was not made for the betterment of things or to give the fans something better. That is where the kick comes in, and that is why Henry is slightly peeved at the action taken.

LOSS OF GREAT PACER HASTENS SAVAGE'S DEATH SAY MINNEAPOLIS FRIENDS

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 13.—M. W. Savage, owner of Dan Patch, the world famous pacer which died on Tuesday, passed away at his home here last night. Savage had been in poor health for some time, and many of his friends believe that the death of the great pacer hastened his death.

Loring D. Towle of Boston donated a new $75,000 High School structure to the town of Newport, N. H., his home town.

WRECKING CREW DEFEATS MISSIONS IN FOURTH STRAIGHT GAME AT POST

All Crafton Does for Day is Knock Out Two Home Runs and One Single—Johnson Gets Triple, Double and Single—Three Santa Clara Pitchers Batted All Over Lot—Jackson and Waterhouse Suffer—Rogan Stops Visitors With Ease

25th Infantry 14, Santa Clara 8.

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOPIELD BARRACKS, July 13.—It was a hectic game yesterday between the army chumps and the Santa Clara, a game that was not good for anyone who cannot stand excitement and a much accelerated pulse. The game had its ups and downs, the last up being for the 25th in its last inning at bat, and the last down being for the visitors in that very same epoch of the game.

The trouble with the visitors was that they did not have a Rogan to save the day. It was a hard day on pitchers, and Rogan was the only one out of six who could weather the storm.

Rogan left the third sack and took Waterhouse's place on the mound in the eighth. The Santas had lined out five clean singles in this inning against Waterhouse's delivery. They had brought in three runs and tied the score. When Rogan went in the box the bases were full, only one man was out and Hall was facing him at the plate. Hall had rapped out a triple in the first frame and seemed prepared to repeat this performance. Rogan struck him out and then caused Preciado to pop up a fly to Smith.

Bumps for Hurters

In the last half of the eighth it was a different story. The 25th needed one run to break the tie, but made six. It had no mercy upon Brown, and when he gave way to Leonard, Leonard fared no better.

In this inning the Santa Clara's disputed a decision of Umpire Donahue, which, had it been reversed, would have retired the 25th without a score in this frame and perhaps changed the entire aspect of the game. It was one of the best decisions Donahue ever made, but the visitors could not see it in that light. There were two men on bases and two out, no one having scored. Rogan hit a hot grounder to Preciado, who made a beautiful stop and whipped the ball to first. Bengsurg dropped the ball, recovered it again just as Rogan reached the sack, but did not have the ball more than four or five inches off the ground when it rolled out of his hands again. This time Bengsurg, who was somewhat out of balance, left the ball on the ground and put his gloved hand over it, holding this position for the umpire's decision. Donahue called Rogan out when he saw Bengsurg recovering the ball, but quickly reversed his decision when he saw the sphere on the ground again. This decision brought about one of the many disputes which took place during the game, most of which were between the different players of the Santa Clara team.

Following this calamitous error, Crafton poled out his second home run. Johnson, Smith and Pagan followed with nifty singles to the left garden. What could the poor Santas do?

Both teams hit the ball hard. It was a regular batting bee, but the 25th Infantry hit the harder. Both teams fielded passably well, but Rogan's crew fielded very much the better of the two. In the ninth inning the 25th infield let down a little and permitted the visitors to fill the bases on three infield errors. Such a calamity might have worried any ordinary pitcher, but not Rogan, and the side was retired without a score.

The score of the 25th's fourth victory over the Santa Clara team is as follows:

CREDIT FOR HILO CREW'S SHOWING GOES TO CRABBE

Makes a Great Record for Two Crews; Raw Material Polished Up in 32 Days

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
HILO, July 13.—Ned Crabbe deserves all the aloha of the people of Hilo for the way in which he took hold of the rowing game in this city and turned out the crews he did. He declared one of half-a-dozen sporting men who yesterday were talking about the fine showing made by the Hilo senior and junior oarsmen on July Fourth.

"I should say so," chimed in another man. "Why, Crabbe took hold of those boys just thirty-two days before the great day. Three of the lads had never been in a barge—much less pulled in one. The boys did not know how to climb into their boat and as a matter of fact there was danger for some time at first that the bottom of the barge would be burst by the unaccustomed feet. And who would have imagined for a second that last Tuesday the crews would pull such good races and make the Honolulu oarsmen exert themselves to the last ounce in order to win by a few feet in both races."

Improved Crew

"You're dead right," said a third man. "I never thought it possible for oarsmen to be developed in such a short time. The men rowed with a beautiful stroke, did not splash at all and finished in the gamiest possible fashion. If the junior crew had spurted just a trifle they would have won their race. As it is, it was the best race seen in years anywhere on earth."

"You fellows have it down pat," said still another man. "I feel that Crabbe deserves the greatest of credit. It seems like a dream to me that the Hilo juniors are in existence at all. They have come along so quickly that it is marvelous. The lads rowed as other men of their age, weight and experience never did before. It was hard luck that they did not win. They would nine times out of ten. Tuesday's race was the exception that proves the rule. Good luck to a fine bunch of youngsters. And good luck to our senior crew which was struck so beautifully by Mel Nicoll. If Luther Hough had been coxswain of the Hilo crew they would have won by several lengths."

JOHNNY COULON PLACES DILLON AHEAD OF DARCY

Ex-Bantamweight Champ Selects Mit Artists in Order of Rank at Present Time

Johnny Coulon, ex-bantamweight champion of the world, has listed the mit artists of the world in the order that he believes they rank at present. Johnny knows all of the ringsters with the exception of Les Darcy and his selections are of interest. The bantam does not place Les Darcy at the head of the middleweights, but shifts him in the light heavyweight class behind Jack Dillon. Here is the list:

Heavyweights—(1) Jess Willard, (2) Jack Dillon, (3) Fred Fulton.

Light heavyweights—(1) Jack Dillon, (2) Les Darcy, (3) Battling Levinsky, (4) George ("Knockout") Brown of Chicago.

Middleweights—(1) Mike Gibbons, (2) George Chip, (3) Jimmy Clabby, (4) Eddie McGorty.

Welterweights—(1) Jack Britton, (2) Ritchie, (3) Ted ("Kid") Lewis, (4) Fred Gilmore.

Lightweights—(1) Freddie Welsh, (2) Charlie White, (3) Benny Leonard.
